

WILL OF JAMES R. SHALER, DECEASED.

I, James R. Shaler, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

I give and bequeath all of my estate, real and personal whereof I may die seized and possessed to "The Chattanooga Savings Bank" of Chattanooga, Tennessee, and my brother "Charles Shaler" to have and to hold the same upon the uses and trusts as follows, to wit: In trust to pay all of my lawful debts and funeral expenses, and the cost of a simple monument not to exceed five hundred dollars in value ($500.00); Secondly, to pay to my wife, Virginia E. Shaler, upon her sole and separate receipts, the interest, income and revenue of my said estate during the term of her natural life.

At her death I wish the following disposition to be made of my estate: to my brother, Charles Shaler, for the use of his children, such sums of money as may have been received by me, or may be due to me, from the Estate of my Mother, Mrs. Mary Anne Shaler. (This may amount to Fifteen thousand ($15,000.00) dollars, more or less,)

- To the nephew of my wife, George McDerby, five thousand dollars ($5,000.00)
- To the grand nephew of my wife, Roger Derby Black, five thousand dollars ($5,000.00)
- To my sister, Lucy Shaler Hodges, five thousand dollars ($5,000.00)
- To my sister, Louise Shaler Allen, one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)
- To my namesake, James Shaler Hodges, one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)
- To my God-child Anna Gordon Smith, one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)
- To Sophie Ross Riddle, (of Louisville, Ky.) one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)
- To Percy Gamble Black (God-son) one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)
- To Roger Shaler Bagnall (God-son) five hundred dollars ($ 500.00)
- To James Forrester Swett, Troy, N. Y. five hundred dollars ($ 500.00)
- To the Congregation of Christ Church (P.E.) of Chattanooga one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)
- To St. Lukes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo. to be added to a bequest to be made by my wife, Virginia E. Shaler for a memorial, three thousand dollars ($3,000.00)
- To "The Trustees for the relief of Widows and Orphans" of deceased clergymen and of aged, infirm and disabled clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America, a corporation created in the year 1855, by Chapter 459 of the laws of the State of New York, five thousand dollars; which last named sum, shall be paid over to the proper officer in charge of said fund.) $5,000.00
- To Julia, daughter of late Fred Smith, one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)

In case the value of my estate should not prove sufficient to pay in full the amounts herein specified, then and in that case my Executor and Trustee are hereby authorized & directed to reduce the amounts, directed above to be paid to each devisee, pro-rata, as they deem necessary and equitable, EXCEPT that the sum realized from the Estate of Mrs. Mary Anne Shaler shall be paid in full to my brother, Charles Shaler, and the sum devised to St. Lukes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo. ($3,000.00) shall also be paid in full.
