Last Will and Testament of Mary Schmidt

I, Mary Schmidt, of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make this as my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all other wills heretofore made.

(1) I direct my executor to be hereinafter named to pay all of my just debts.

(2) I give, bequeath and devise to my beloved son, William H. Schmidt, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, all of my property of every kind and nature, wherever situated, including personalty, mixed, real and otherwise, in fee simple.

(3) Having a profound interest in the future welfare of my two beloved grandchildren, Henry Schmidt and Louise Schmidt, the children of my said son, William H. Schmidt, I request my said son, William H. Schmidt, to keep and maintain said children and to give to each of them a good education and to always see that they are well provided for in every way. Knowing the deep affection of their father for them I feel sure that he will do this and abide by my request.

(4) I hereby nominate and appoint my said son, William H. Schmidt, as the executor of this, my last will and testament. He is hereby relieved of the necessity of giving any bond as such representative.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 9th day of July, 1919.

MARY ^{her}X SCHMIDT
_{mark}

Signed by the said Mary Schmidt, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at her request, and in her sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereunto as attesting witnesses the day and date above written,

JOE V. WILLIAMS
