

WILL OF THEODORE G. MONTAGUE.

I Theodore G. Montague of Chattanooga Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and impressed with the uncertainty of human life, do make publish and declare my last will and testament to be as follows :

First. I desire that all of my just debts be paid.

Secondly. I devise and bequeath all of the rest and residue of my property, both real and personal, wherever situated, that may remain after the payment of my debts, to my beloved wife Mary Montague, to have and to hold the same to her sole and separate use forever, with full power and authority to dispose of the same by deed, gift, will, or in any other manner which to her may seem proper; having perfect confidence in her ability and trusting implicitly in her judgment to so administer and manage the property herein devised and bequeathed as to promote the best interests of herself and our dear children, it is my desire that she be untrammelled in every respect in the use and disposition which she may make of said property.

I appoint my said wife Mary sole executrix of this my last will and testament and desire that she shall not be required to take any oath or give any bond as such executrix. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Fifth day of October A.D.1878.

Theodore G. Montague (Seal)

Signed sealed published and declared by the above named Theodore G. Montague as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.
